Wednesday 10AM - 12N

Class begins January 24th ends February 14th

This class will help you in your everyday computer use. We will briefly talk about what is new and useful, so you'll become more comfortable with the program. We will then cover, in detail, going online – for most of the information and activities we all depend on each day. There will be special emphasis on effective and safe browsing, which includes protecting against viruses and email scams. There will be time in each session for your questions, general discussion, and frequent hands-on practice. The fourth session will be devoted to assistance, as time allows, with each attendee's questions and problems. Attendees with laptops are encouraged to bring them to this fourth session.
