Carlsbad Public Library Presents a Virtual Meeting (Zoom)
Tuesday, September 29th, 2020
-1:30PM: RSVP Required

Sarah Dana, Sr. Librarian for Genealogy at Carlsbad Public Library - Cole Library, will present information about their extensive resources. Theirs is one of the largest collections of Genealogical resources on the West Coast.

Emphasis will be on databases and collateral material that is available through their website. You will find out how you can now obtain their library card by online application; once in hand, you'll be able to access and utilize their databases. These include many of the most popular: Ancestry.com, Newspapers.com, Fold 3, American Ancestors, Heritage Quest and more! As part of this presentation, you will be provided with the link for and instructions to access and use their online data bases and other collections.

Attendance limited to LWV residents, please. Upon registering, you will receive complete details about joining the meeting on the 29th.
