Subject: Financial

A different kind of personality test. Past cool sites have been able to determine your personality by choosing colored circles or answering questions.

Today's site tests your financial personality. By knowing what type of money person you are, it might help you save more for the future.

Send this site to the college-aged kids in your family. They may find it helpful.

Reaching the World

There's a man in Denmark with a 100-foot radio tower in his backyard!

Why? He's a ham radio operator. He is co-founder of a ham club with some musically talented members.

Listen to some of their songs by clicking on The Ham Band. The music is similar to American country music.

Don't forget to check out the music video! Watch out VH1!

Subject: [87th-inf-div] Painted Rocks

Rock solid Every year for the past five years, a 24-year-old artist in Iowa has painted a large boulder. He paints scenes from past and present wars, as well as inspirational messages. This is all done to honor America's servicemen and women.

The rock is located outside Des Moines. If you happen to be in that area, there's a map to its location.

More Financial Advice

Unless you took a college class in investing, it can get pretty darned confusing. What's the difference between a CD and a bond? What's the safest thing to put your money in?

This site explains basic and advanced concepts in easy-to-understand English. Be sure to check out the glossary. I learned a lot; I think you will, too.
