

FYI

Now on our LWPCUG Website you can see the most recent list of classes and their status and the monthly SIGS. For this site go here: <http://www.lwpcug.com/LearningCenter.html>. Scroll down to see Class List and SIGs. Click on Status to see if class is filled.

BOARD MINUTES CONTINUED (from p. 4)

The computer inventory has been completed by Len Hewitt and Jean Huerta. All 32 systems are operational. Some need updates and configuration cleanup. Firefox 1.0 browser will be installed on a few computers. The Workshop will be closed on February 21st for Presidents Day.

Membership Report – Greta Wacker and Robin Nahas: Notice in Leisure Bytes brought in only 3 but Greta's Email resulted in 88 returns. Current membership is 1,195. Roger said that we need to have another new member meeting. Greta will send out another e-mail but will use a filter this time to omit those who are already paid up.

Broadband – Joe Schwarz: About 1700 residents have signed up for Broadband with about 1100 still on Dial-up. Roger reminded us that WestCoast provides us with free service at the Workshop and Learning Center and also Mac.. The PC club has paid for the cable modems, routers and wireless network in Clubhouse 3 and 5 but cable access is not yet available in the other Clubhouses.

Programs – Roger Turner: The February 21st program is "On-Line Poker" by Bob Farmer. This is not really about gambling but about On-line Gaming. The March 21st program is "ProShow Gold" by Burt Goldstein.

Publicity – Kaye Hammerman: Flyers in Clubhouse 3 also in the glass case. We keep having good cooperation with the Leisure World News. Plan on about 2 week advance notice. Channel 6 will interview Bob Farmer on Feb. 15th. News articles are also available on Website.

Leisure Bytes – Marge Amstadter: Deadline is the Monday before the meeting. Matt Schwartz is giving up his column. Need a replacement columnist and also material for publication. Has e-mail that we need to pay our dues to National Organization of PCUG.

Website – Anne Clark: Roger has asked Anne to highlight the Website at the next meeting before the start of the program. Show how they can get Leisure Bytes on-line. Thanks for the copy of Publisher 2003. Anne also asked for Roster – will only list names no other information.

New Business: Volunteer Dinner – Katy Link: Will be on March 2nd. Katy asked Marge and Robin to contact Jolanda regarding menu and cost. E-mails will be sent to all eligible volunteers.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:25 P.M.

Lydia Savedoff, Secretary.