 ★ LWPCUG VOLUNTEER DIN- ★
 ★ NER ★
 ★ Yes, you're reading this correctly. You ★
 ★ see, we feel that all our volunteers deserve ★
 ★ some thanks for all the work they do through- ★
 ★ out the year. What nicer way to acknowledge ★
 ★ them than by inviting them to a dinner party ★
 ★ where they can relax, talk, eat, and have a ★
 ★ thoroughly enjoyable evening—with no shop ★
 ★ talk! ★
 ★ One hundred sixty volunteers and a few ★
 ★ guests of volunteers met in our beautiful new ★
 ★ Clubhouse 7 where they imbibed at our wine ★
 ★ bar while having hot and cold appetizers. ★
 ★ There was lots of talk, laughter, and warmth of ★
 ★ spirit emanating throughout the group. Dinner, ★
 ★ by Jolanda, was excellent as was the service. ★
 ★ The dining room looked wonderful with forest ★
 ★ green table cloths, white napkins, sparkling ★
 ★ crystal and silver and table decorations. Katy ★
 ★ Link, our Vice President, welcomed everyone ★
 ★ and thanked her committee. There were no ★
 ★ other speeches and a good time was had by ★
 ★ all. ★
 ★ Anyone wishing to volunteer his/her ★
 ★ time can contact Beverly Clark (Greeters) or ★
 ★ ★
